

Physical Development

Holds and uses a range of one handed tools with accuracy, scissors, paint brush.

Holds a pencil effectively (tripod grip) Can form clear, recognisable letters, most of which are correctly formed.

Communication and Language

Can talk about what they have learnt, sharing their understanding and opinion.

Can use newly learnt vocabulary with some accuracy. Vocabulary learnt from fiction, nonfiction texts and new experiences.

Can speak in longer more complex sentences, uses correct tenses and connectives with accuracy.

Personal Social and Emotional

Can talk about and demonstrate their understanding of how to be healthy, healthy diet, exercise, oral health, managing own hygiene.

Demonstrates a good understanding of behaviour expectations, can identify emotions in themselves and others. Will offer support to their peers when upset.

Minibeasts and growing/planting

Literacy

Can write words and simple sentences using their phonics knowledge. More complex words are phonetically plausible.

Can read and write a range of common exception words.

Can read simple sentences and simple books demonstrating an understanding of what they have read.

Can recognise and match a wide range of letters and sounds including diagraphs (working on set 2 sounds RWI)

Expressive Arts and Design

Builds with a purpose in mind. Can adapt own work, explaining choices (tape / glue etc) can include some detail in their designs.

Enjoys taking part in role play activities, can make and use props to support narrative.

Understanding of the World

Can talk about the changes that occur in the environment, talk about their experiences and knowledge (chicks, planting, seasons etc)

Mathematics

Can recall number bonds to 5 (extended 10) knowing how they can be addition / subtraction.

Can accurately match numbers and quantity.

Uses a range of mathematical vocabulary related to number (additional / subtraction) and shape accurately (sides / corners).